

The following “Self-Designation as a Provider of Free Assistance to an Owner of Residential Property that is Occupied by the Owner as the Owner's Principal Residence” forms have been received by the Tarrant Appraisal District (TAD) as of the date below.

As per Section 6.16 of the Texas Property Tax Code, the chief appraiser may maintain a list of individuals who will provide free assistance to an owner of residential property that is occupied by the owner as the owner's principal residence. Eligible providers of free assistance are: (1) real estate brokers or sales agents licensed under Chapter 1101, Occupations Code; (2) real estate appraisers licensed or certified under Chapter 1103, Occupations Code; or (3) property tax consultants registered under Chapter 1152, Occupations Code. A person must designate himself or herself as an individual who will provide free assistance by completing a form prescribed by the chief appraiser and submitting the form to the chief appraiser.

Attention: TAD accepts no responsibility as to the availability, quality, or terms of service provided by these self-designates nor does TAD verify their claimed professional license type or status. TAD is not a party to any contract or relationship established between you and a self-designated provider. Do not contact TAD regarding any concerns with your communications or dealings with self-designated providers. The self-designation forms presented here are displayed exactly as they were received by TAD.
