2. Service Required

Appraisal Review Board hearings normally begin in June and conclude on or before the end of September. You may be required to work eight (8) hours per day, five or six days a week, for an extended period of time. The average time period is eighty-five (85) to ninety (90) days during June, July, August, and September (some Saturdays required). Regular board meetings as well as supplemental hearings will normally be held monthly during the remainder of the year. If you have commitments during the months of June, July, August, and September that may interfere with your service, please indicate below:

A person who has served for all or part of three consecutive terms as a board member on an appraisal review board is ineligible to serve on the appraisal review board during a term that begins on the next January 1 following the third of those consecutive terms.

Once appointed, would you be willing to resign your position as an Appraisal Review Board Member if you discover that, due to business or other commitments, you would no longer be able to serve the days required during the ARB hearing process?

5. Eligibility and Conflict of Interest Disclosure

In order to ensure that ARB members are impartial, the law puts a number of limits on who can serve as ARB members. Your answers to these questions will determine whether you are legally eligible to serve on the ARB. For the purposes of these questions:

- A "local government" is a governmental entity that levies property taxes, such as a county, city, school district, junior college, hospital district, municipal utility district, or other special district.
- "Appraisal district" refers to the Tarrant Appraisal District and to any other appraisal district in the state of Texas.
- "Governing body" means the group of officials that oversee a local government, such as a city council, county commissioners' court, school board of trustees, or board of directors.
- "Officer" means holding an elective or appointive office for a local government, such as governing body member, chief executive officer, judge, tax assessor, business manager, superintendent, etc., and includes an election judge, alternate election judge, and election clerk who serve in conducting a general election.
- "Part-time employee" includes a substitute teacher. "Contract" means an agreement of any sort.
- "Substantial interest" means combined ownership by you and your spouse of at least 10% of the voting stock or shares of a business entity, or that you or your spouse is a partner, limited partner, or officer of the business entity.
