Disability Homestead Exemption: Information and Requirements

In Texas, a disabled adult has a right to a special homestead exemption. If you qualify, this exemption can reduce your taxes substantially. By law, school districts must provide a $10,000 disability exemption. Other taxing entities have the option to offer disability exemptions of at least $3,000. If you qualify, you will receive this exemption in addition to the general homestead exemption. However, you cannot receive both a disability exemption and an over-65 exemption for the same taxing unit.

Who is a disabled person for the purposes of this exemption?
The Texas Property Tax Code provides that you are entitled to the exemption if you meet the Social Security Administration's tests for disability. In simplest terms:
1) You must have a medically determinable physical or mental impairment;
2) The impairment must prevent you from engaging in any substantial gainful activity; and
3) The impairment must be expected to last for at least 12 continuous months or to result in death.

Alternatively, you will qualify if you are 55 or older and blind and cannot engage in your previous work because of your blindness.

Do I have to be receiving disability benefits to qualify?
You do not have to be receiving disability benefits, but you must meet the definition of disabled given above. If you receive disability benefits under the Federal Old Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance Program through the Social Security Administration you will automatically qualify. Disability benefits from any other program do not automatically qualify you for this exemption.

How do I claim the exemption?
To claim the exemption, you must file an application with the appraisal district. The application must include documentation of your disability. The application form is entitled "Application for Residential Homestead Exemption." This form can be obtained from our website (www.TAD.org) or by request to the Tarrant Appraisal District - Exemptions Division at (817) 284-4063. In it, you should complete all applicable information. Be especially certain to mark the box that recognizes your claim for the disability exemption. The most common reason for denial of this exemption is failure to provide adequate documentation.

What kind of documents should I include?
The best form of documentation, if you are receiving Social Security Disability, is a copy of your disability determination letter issued by the Social Security Administration dated within the last 12 months. If you are not receiving Social Security Disability, then have your physician complete a TAD's Physician's Statement for Disability Homestead Exemption or attach information from a recognized retirement system verifying your permanent disability.

Where do I file my application?
Once you have completed the application and secured appropriate documentation, you may mail or file your request directly with the appraisal district at the address given on this form. Action on your application usually will occur within four to six weeks from the date it is received. In the event the appraisal district disagrees with your request, you will be notified and offered an opportunity to protest this decision. For any questions or additional assistance, you are encouraged to call a TAD representative at (817) 284-4063 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Duty to Notify
If the chief appraiser grants the homestead exemption(s), you do not need to reapply annually. However, you must reapply if the chief appraiser requires you to do so, or if you want the exemption to apply to property not listed in this application.

You MUST NOTIFY the chief appraiser IN WRITING BEFORE MAY 1 of the year after your right to this exemption ends.
